PROJECTS

Sprimg | <http://sprimg.app>

Motivated by a high unemployment job market, a friend and I built a job tracking application to help seekers organize their search. We whiteboard, designed, built and deployed the app from the ground up.

- 200+ monthly active users organizing their job search with our app
- React/Redux front-end with Ant Design components. Node/Express backend with MongoDB. Styling done with TailwindCSS. Deployed on Heroku.

EXPERIENCE

SkillsEngine - Austin

Full-Stack Software Engineer II | Dec 2020 - Present

Full-Stack Software Engineer | Sept 2019 - Dec 2020

Service Engineer Intern | June 2019 - Sept 2019

- Re-built existing curriculum alignment application, migrating from Rails-rendered to reactive and well-tested EmberJS app
- Migrated entire app from disjointed SASS framework to modern TailwindCSS, leading to team adoption of a new design framework driven by TailwindCSS/TailwindUI
- Work directly with designers to align design language with developer tooling and deliver features that fit within established guidelines
- Moved complex front-end class to a Rails model, taking feature from planning to developing the model, endpoints and serializer, leading to 75% quicker page loads
- Assist in hiring process, interviewing onboarding and training new developers
- Lead planning and breaking down of features into detailed front-end and API tickets, ensuring our team delivers within established timeline

Andela - Business Development Manager - NYC & Austin

January 2018 - January 2019

- Developed key resources and strategies to connect US-based companies with Africa-based Javascript, Python, Ruby, iOS and Android developers
- Drove over $6M in sourced ARR, attaining 100-160% of quarterly goals in 2018
- Successfully led Austin office buildout, hiring, training and managing initial 15 hires
